

LAWS1021: PUBLIC LAW AND STATUTORY INTERPRETATION

Aniket Sinha

November 2025

Contents

1	Ngara and Foundations of Commonwealth and States	1
2	Introduction to Key Ideas of Anglo-Australian Public Law	3
3	Power to Amend Constitutional Amendments	5
4	Representative Power and Popular Sovereignty	7
5	Ngara - Constitutional Amendment	9
6	The Executive in Relation to Parliament	11
7	Non-Statutory Executive Power	13
8	The National Judiciary and Separated Judicial Power	15
9	Punishment as an Exclusively Judicial Function	17
10	Judicial Power to Interpret Legislation	19
11	Ngara - Constitutional Interpretation	21

Topic 1

Ngura and Foundations of Commonwealth and States

Bob v Mary (2023) HCA 123

Facts

These are the facts of the case.

Issues

1. Issue 1
2. Issue 2
3. Issue 3

Decision

The court took the following decisions because they were bored.

1. Decision 1
2. Decision 2

Other Notes

See ETEX v Aniket (2023) HCA 456 for related cases.

Topic 2

Introduction to Key Ideas of Anglo-Australian Public Law

Topic 3

Power to Amend Constitutional Amendments

Topic 4

Representative Power and Popular Sovereignty

Topic 5

Ngara - Constitutional Amendment

Topic 6

The Executive in Relation to Parliament

Topic 7

Non-Statutory Executive Power

Topic 8

The National Judiciary and Separated Judicial Power

Topic 9

Punishment as an Exclusively Judicial Function

Topic 10

Judicial Power to Interpret Legislation

Topic 11

Ngara - Constitutional Interpretation